Two-year Term Position Available

Graduate Consultant

Marshall Day Acoustics - Hong Kong Office

We are acoustic consultants specialising in design and specification of performing arts and cultural centres including theatres, concert halls, opera houses, recording studios, museums and galleries. We also work on premium developments for educational, government and corporate buildings. We have offices around the world, including Hong Kong, Shanghai, Australia, New Zealand and Europe.

We are looking for an enthusiastic graduate, to join the Hong Kong office to assist with our local and international projects. We offer training, professional memberships, travel opportunities, office transfer options and a creative office environment.

We invite applications from graduates to experienced consultants, engineers or architects who are interested in Acoustics Design. The successful candidate will join our team on prestigious performing arts centres in Hong Kong, China and Australia.

The tasks will include:

- Conduct acoustic assessments on sound insulation, mechanical noise & vibration control and room acoustic
- Attend meetings, construction site inspections and acoustic measurements with team members
- Prepare project documentations, reports and drawings
- Travel with the team to attend commissioning tests and concerts/performances outside HK

The ideal candidate should have a HKID card who can work legally in HK and:

- Excellent spoken and written English, Cantonese & Mandarin
- Competency in AutoCAD (Skills in Rhino3D, Sketch-Up, Odeon, BIM etc are appreciated)
- Passion for music, performing arts and acoustic engineering
- Collaborative nature and ability to work in a team.

Package includes:

- Attractive remuneration
- 4 weeks paid annual leave
- Personal leave
- Transportation and mobile phone allowance
